- Puppies are guaranteed for one year from the date of birth against any fatal or life-altering diseases which adversely affect the health of the puppy. This includes severe hip dysplasia that requires corrective surgery as well as kidney, heart, pancreas, spine, and liver problems that are life-threatening. If the puppy dies within this one-year time frame the buyer will pay to have an autopsy done and if the reason is congenital the seller will replace the puppy.

- This guarantee does not cover conditions that may or may not be stress-related from shipping or moving puppies to a new home, such as Coccidia Giardia or Kennel Cough which are usually caused by bacteria and can happen when puppies get stressed.
- A puppy showing any serious genetic or congenital defect will be replaced as follows: Puppy must show the defect by one year of age and seller must be notified of the problem within two business days of the licensed veterinarian's determination. The buyer must be notified of the problem within two business days of the licensed veterinarian's determination. The buyer must have two reports from two unassociated veterinarians stating the same problem.
- Seller will pay no vet bills and no refund in part or in full will be given.
- Puppies must be returned to the seller in good condition, other than the specified problem at the expense of the buyer. The buyer will then qualify for a replacement puppy.
- The buyer is responsible for transportation costs to and from the seller on replacement puppies.
- This guarantee applies to the original puppy owner only and is not transferable to another party.
- No replacement puppy will be given if the puppy has been bred, spayed, neutered, or euthanized without permission from the seller.
- Replacement puppies will be mutually agreed upon by both parties. Puppies may not be from the exact same parents but of comparable quality and value. The seller has one year to make replacement of any returned puppies due to the fact that breeding and gestation and raising of a puppy takes a certain amount of time. If the seller cannot provide the buyer with another puppy of similar quality and value within one year then a full refund will be given.
- Any physical problem which is or could be the result of an injury is not covered under this guarantee.
